

Chief of Police

The City of Neillsville is now accepting applications to fill one full-time Chief of Police vacancy. Neillsville is the county seat of Clark County and has a population of 2,400 people.

Responsibilities: The Neillsville Police Department has 6 sworn officers, 1 full-time civilian administrative assistant, and 1 part-time civilian parking enforcement officer. The Department is seeking a highly motivated, progressive and energetic person with leadership experience to work in partnership with the community to prevent crime, solve problems, and enhance the quality of life of citizens. Duties include: maintaining the Department's administration, efficiency, and general good conduct; planning, organizing, and directing the resources of the Department; maintaining accurate records; enforcement of laws; including criminal, traffic, and city ordinances; maintaining the public peace; and protection of life and property.

Salary: $60,000 - $70,000 plus benefits. Any additional monies would require City Council approval.

Benefits: Wisconsin Retirement Fund, Health/Dental Insurance, Sick Leave, Vacation, (9) Paid Holidays, Clothing Allowance,

Qualifications: U.S. citizen, valid driver's license, good driving record, Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board Certification, Bachelor's Degree preferred, 5 years' experience in law enforcement, able to possess a firearm, no felony convictions, no domestic abuse convictions, excellent verbal/written communication skills, good computer skills, able to perform several tasks simultaneously,.

Selected applicants will be required to appear before an oral interview board, complete medical/psychological exam, drug screening, and extensive background check.

Apply: No later than 5:00 P.M. on March 29, 2019

Submit: DJ-LE-330 and Resume. Both may be emailed.

Contact:

Rex Roehl, City Clerk
118 West 5th Street,
Neillsville, WI 54456
715-743-2105
clerk@neillsville-wi.com